

Food Safety and Quality Policy

Windmill Organics Ltd is an organic food company selling certified organic products under 6 different brands.

Our distribution is mainly through wholesalers, supermarkets and larger independent retailers.

Windmill Organics is committed to complying with the requirements of the Food Safety Act 1990 (Amendment Regulations 2004 and the General Food Regulations 2004) and to supplying safe, legal, authentic products to its specified quality to its customers and consumers.

Our partner producers are organically certified and follow strict quality procedures in line with their GFSI accreditation.

Our branded products are manufactured, based on agreed specifications and labels are checked to ensure they comply with Regulation (EU) No 1169/2011 and Regulation (EU) No 2018/848.

We have high quality standards for receiving, storing, and shipping our products. Our food storage facilities operate to BRCGS food safety standards and are organically certified.

All suppliers must adhere to Windmill Organics Ethical Trading policy.
